I did hold my buddies up who were on 400, 690, and two 1200's but that was loaded and at high altitude. You can expect 65 mph loaded. I was down to about 50-55 mph loaded, 8,000 altitude, uphill against the wind but that would be rare. This is all speculation on my part, but here goes. Sounds to me like the 450L will be more similar to the KTM than the DRZ with your usage in mind. I think it sounds like the CRF is going to have similar, if not stiffer, suspension than the 500. Although about 50% better than KTM, the maintenance. The Honda Civic Hybrid is a variation of the Honda Civic with a hybrid electric powertrain. Honda introduced the Civic Hybrid in Japan in December 2001 and discontinued it in 2015. The Honda Fit (Japanese: フィット, Honda Fitto), also marketed as the Honda Jazz (Japanese: ジャズ, Honda Jazu), is a five-door, front-engine, front-wheel drive B-segment subcompact car manufactured and marketed by Honda since 2001 and now in its third generation.
