In computer science, artificial intelligence (AI), sometimes called machine intelligence, is intelligence demonstrated by machines, in contrast to the natural intelligence displayed by humans and animals. (Third edition) by Stuart Russell and Peter Norvig. The leading textbook in Artificial Intelligence. Used in over 1400 universities in over 125 countries. The 2019 edition of the biennial International Conference on Artificial Intelligence and Law (ICAAIL) will be organised at the Cyberjustice Laboratory, University of Montreal (director: professor Karim Benyekhlef). An artificial neural network is a network of simple elements called artificial neurons, which receive input, change their internal state (activation) according to that input, and produce output depending on the input and activation.
