Jesus commends the Apostle Peter's confession of Him as "the Messiah, the Son of the Living God" (Matthew 16:16), because Jesus knew that who He is – and could be to us – has the power to change our lives. I have some thoughts on this passage... Thankfulness is part of the Christian character. When our attention is on the gift/healing then our thankfulness will stray, but when our attention is on the gift giver our thankfulness will be well placed. I'm trying to formulate my understanding of the way in which Jesus transcended the Law of God while being obedient to it at the same time. Here is a specific example: Lev 13:45 Now the leper on whom the sore is, his clothes shall be torn and his head bare; and he shall cover his mustache, and cry Hillsong Orange County is one of many vibrant Hillsong churches around the world. We aim to serve this region by being the hands, the feet, and the voice of Jesus.
