Introduction Since the late 1990s, governments at all levels have launched electronic government (eGovernment) projects aimed at providing electronic information and services to citizens and businesses (Torres, Pina, & Acerete, 2005). On the Internet, where the number of choices is overwhelming, there is need to filter, prioritize and efficiently deliver relevant information in order to alleviate the problem of information overload, which has created a potential problem to many Internet users. Origin. The Gartner Group first used the abbreviation ERP in the 1990s to extend upon the capabilities of material requirements planning (MRP), and the later manufacturing resource planning (MRP II), as well as computer-integrated manufacturing.
