If Miscarriage is seldom talked about, the feelings associated with pregnancy after a loss are even more seldom talked about. I think there's a misconception that once a woman conceives after a Miscarriage, that somehow her Miscarriage is erased— that the feelings of loss are replaced by feelings of joy for this new baby, and that ...Rebekah and I met through God's divine intervention as He brought her and her husband into Bill and I's lives when Bill moved to Texas. Bill was their housemate after moving to Texas before we got married, and they graciously offered to have me stay with them while Bill was deployed and our house was being built.
