In the Snow: Who's Been Here? by Lindsay Barrett George follows two children through the woods as they find signs of animals everywhere. As Cammy and William go through the woods, they see no animals but plenty of signs, including bird tracks, red seeds, a leafy nest, gnawed branches, a pellet ofThe woods are cold and desolate as Cammy and William hike through the snow, yet signs of animal life are everywhere. Help them find the clues -- a pellet of feathers and bones, a fish head by the brook, a patch of bark rubbed off the trunk of a birch tree, and more -- and join in guessing, "Who's been here?" Accurately and beautifully illustrated, Lindsay Barrett George's story book In the Snow: Who's Been Here? introduces children to a series of common woodland animals encountered by two children and their dog while playing in the snow. Although the book is appropriate for young children ages 3-8, the principles of identi
