

Download Lakes Of Jammu Kashmir And Ladakh

Some of the major lakes in the state of Jammu and Kashmir are the Dal Lake, Manasbal Lake, and Wular Lake. The Dal Lake is the second biggest lake in the state. Famous for its houseboats, it is a popular tourist destination. The Manasbal Lake lies at a distance of 30 km from Srinagar, the summer capital of the state. While on a tour to the lakes of Jammu and Kashmir, you may also visit the Tsokar Lake and the Gangasagar Lake. Tsokar Lake is popularly called the “White lake” because of the salt content in it. Situated approximately 45 km northwest of the Tsomoriri Lake at a height of 4,485 m, the Tsokar lake covers an area of about 10 sq km. Without immodesty, J&K State can boast of being globally famous for the breathtaking beauty of its natural waterbodies especially lakes. However, at a time when these lakes are dying and screaming for help, though which is a matter of concern for all of us, an enthusiastic author from Srinagar, MirThe awe-inspiring lakes of J&K that make it heaven on the earth. So, let’s take a ride through the heavenly lakes in Jammu & Kashmir & Ladakh region,