

Download Lyotard : Towards A Modern Philosophy

Jean-Francois Lyotard was one of the most influential European thinkers in recent decades. He was a leading participant in debates about post-modernism and the decline of Marxism, and he made important contributions to ethics, aesthetics and political philosophy. Lyotard: towards a postmodern philosophy is a very enlightening work that I found to cover most of the points of postmodernism and Lyotard's perpetuation of the philosophy. One thing I found lacking, however, was the development of postmodern architecture, a salient facet of the movement, and Lyotard's involvement in it.
