A unique, fun-filled DVD that will bring the whole family together! Combines art and crafts with music, develops your child's manual dexterity, teaches the proper use of tools, and gives him or her the satisfaction of creating real instruments from inexpensive, easy-to-find household items. Did you know that you can make a banjo out of a bleach bottle? A conga drum from an oatmeal box? Maracas from frozen orange juice cans? Cathy Fink and Marcy Marxer invite kids, parents and teachers to help them make and play these and other homemade instruments. Cathy and Marcy demonstrate how to make and play the Yardstick Mouthbow, oatmeal box conga drums, bleach-bottle banjo, bottle cap castanets, tin can maracas, and washtub bass, as well as playing the spoons and the old-fashioned washboard, all using inexpensive, easy-to-find household items.
