Modern Pacing Sire Lines, John Bradley's long awaited sequel to Modern Trotting Sire Lines, is now available. This work represents over two years of in-depth research. Bradley gives a straightforward, objective analysis to 50 of today's leading pacing sires and devotes an entire chapter to each. Shadow Wave was a son of Adios. He was unraced as a 2yo but went on to be a top performer at 3yo – the winner 20 races including The Little Brown Jug and named World Champion. Author John Bradley looks at the pedigrees, records and stud performance of the top 50 pacing sires of the modern era. These are current sires or sires that are close up in the pedigrees of today's horses. CHAPTER SIX MODERN ERA PACING SIRE LINES The New Century Era had witnessed a rivalry between two great pacing sires, both foaled in 1926.
